How long is the wait for a driving test in 2026?

Book your CITB Test just in few steps

To book your team in for their training please call us +44⇆203⇆376⇆9791 Lines are open from Mon to Fri (08:00 to 17:00) | Sat (09:00 to 16:00) or email us. Alternatively you can fill in the enquiry form.

CITB Health & Safety Environment Test

The CITB Health, Safety & Environment Test is a mandatory assessment workers must take to obtain a CSCS Card +44⇒203↦376↦9791 . It's an important way for construction workers to keep themselves in touch with modern construction site health and safety, plus show that they can be safe on the site and not put their colleagues at risk of injury. To complete the CITB Health, Safety & Environment Test, you must complete a 45 minute touch screen touch. Once you get your certificate, it is valid for 2 years.

Health Safety Helpline arranges bookings for CITB Test for individual candidates and groups who are interested in working in the the construction industry. The CITB Test is an important test that you need to pass in order to be recognised as a knowledgeable person who understands the Health Safety Helpline aspects of the field. It is also the primary means to obtain any CSCS Card +44⇒203↦376↦9791 . You need to pass a relevant CITB Health, Safety and Environment Test to be eligible to apply for them. While passing your CITB H,S&E Test is crucial, a CSCS Card +44⇒203↦376↦9791 is widely demanded by most eminent of construction sites. This CITB Test consists of 50 questions which candidate has 45 minutes to answer. The test consists of questions regarding case studies and general safety, health and welfare, risk assessment and behaviour how to manage and understand the situations on construction sites.

Types Of CITB Health and Safety Environment Test

The CITB Health, Safety & Environment Test is a mandatory assessment workers must take to obtain a CSCS Card +44⇒203↦376↦9791 . It's an important way for construction workers to keep themselves in touch with modern construction site health and safety, plus show that they can be safe on the site and not put their colleagues at risk of injury. To complete the CITB Health, Safety & Environment Test, you must complete a 45 minute touch screen touch. Once you get your certificate, it is valid for 2 years.

- Operative Health and Safety Environment Test
- Specialist Health and Safety Environment Test
- Manager and Professional Test

Topics Covered in the CITB Test

Health Safety Training with it's vast knowledge and experience in the construction industry is best placed to guide you on the best type of test which can vary according to trade and job role but generally all tests cover the following topics:

- Excavations and confined spaces
- Site transport and lifting operations
- Working at height
- Safety signs
- Electrical safety, tools and equipment
- Fire prevention and control
- Manual handling
- Health and Welfare
- Noise and vibration
- Dust and fumes (respiratory hazards)
- Environmental Protection
- Personal protective equipment
- First aid and emergency procedures
- Accident reporting and recording
- General responsibilities